VJERA - SUMNJA

Ove nedjelje evanđeosko izvješće donosi nam priču o Tomi apostolu, priča o vjeri i nevjeri, o povjerenju i sumnji, priča koja povezuje ove dvije vječne teme vjere i sumnje koje se protežu kroz svaku nit svakog odnosa, svakog susreta. Toma je kroz čitavu povijest ostao znamen nevjere, znamen koji je uistinu dio svake ljudske duše. Svaki od nas prolazi kroz taj dijalog vjere i nevjere. Izazov sudbine, patnje, smrti velik je toliko da nam često dovodi u pitanje vjerovanje, ili barem pitanje Zašto! Tominu nevjeru rješava Krist dolaskom među apostole. On staje među njih i govori MIR VAMA! Ne bojte se! I zaista u svakom od nas prevladava ili mir ili strah, mir kao posljedica ljubavi, a strah kao posljedica sumnje. Sami moramo odlučiti koga slijediti. Da li nam se isplati živjeti u strahu ili nam je dosita lakše ljubiti i vjerovati. Pred nama su oba ova izazova. Do nas je! Birajmo ljubav, jer ljubav jedina poznaje vjeru. Onda straha neće biti! Nikada!!!

UNCONDITIONAL FAITH

The joy and elation we see in the Acts, and even in Revelation, come from people who had found the way to believe in God unconditionally. Their fears were still very real. People in their lives were still sick. They were still persecuted., but their choice to believe anyway made a difference. Peter's shadow was enough to heal people. This is fantastic! It is Scripture's way of telling us that Peter's own doubt, cowardice, and lack of faith didn't prevent him from coming back to the Lord. The faith that brought him back changed not only his life, but also the lives of those who were near him. Easter calls us to give in to our yearning for God. We may never fully understand, and life in this world will never be perfect, but faith does make a difference. We must avoid placing conditions on God. If we can just let God be God, and trust Him unconditionally despite reasons not to, the peace Jesus offered can be ours. Jesus has breathed on us to make all things possible.
