NAPAST

Bitni dio ljudskog života jest stvarnost napasti. Često puta se nalazimo u prigodama gdje biva iskušana naša duša, naše vrijednosti, naš život, naš odnos spram Bogom, obitelji, bračnim drugom, itd. Kušnja nije grijeh, ali može voditi u grijeh. Kada smo gladni u kušnji smo, kada smo žedni ili bez krova nad glavom, kada nam se nudi vlast i moć, kada je ponuda veća od naših snova... Upravo tako bijaše Kristu; na početku svog javnog djelovanja, nalazi se u pustinji života, bez hrane, bez prijatelja, bez ikoga s kim može podijeliti život. I tada kada mu je najteže pristupa mu đavao i kuša ga. Nudi mu sve, i hranu i piće, i vlast i moć... Krist je ipak jači, on odbija! Moć Duha upravo se vidi u kušnji, kada nam se sve nudi, a mi odbijamo poradi većih razloga. Ovo je vrijeme posta, molitve, kušnje, poniranja u sebe kako bismo shvatili tajnu vlastita života i vlastite patnje. Iskristimo ga. Zađimo u prostore ljubavi gdje ćemo moći raumjeti smisao u put vlastitog hoda. Korizma je vrijeme milosno, vrijeme pokore, vrijeme tišine srca kada Bog progovara. Odražimo se! Zastanimo! Solidarizirajmo se s Kristom.

LENT

The Teutonic word Lent, which we employ to denote the forty days' fast preceding Easter, originally meant no more than the spring season. Still it has been used from the Anglo-Saxon period to translate the more significant Latin term quadragesima (Fr. carême, It. quaresima, Span. cuaresma), meaning the "forty days", or more literally the "fortieth day". This in turn imitated the Greek name for Lent, tessarakoste (fortieth), a word formed on the analogy of Pentecost (pentekoste), which last was in use for the Jewish festival before New-Testament times. Let this Lent be a spiritual journey by which we can take life's heartaches off life support and claim peace of mind again. Let this Lent be our time of growth from the cross to new life, from Good Friday to Easter Sunday. Let this Lent be the time for forgiveness, because "forgiving is one of the greatest forms of practicing charity. It takes great self-sacrifice, true inner conversion, to forgive someone who is not, in fact, sorry for having offended you." Let this Lent be time for silence and prayer, the time when we will search our soul finding God again in every place, in every moment, in every encounter. Let this be a journey of trust and love.
