WEEKLY MEDITATION for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

We begin and end every Mass with the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit ringing in our ears.

Today we celebrate the feast of the Blessed Trinity.

In the Gospel reading for today, Jesus commissioned his apostles to preach the Gospel to all nations, saying that he would be with them always.

God is always with us, but we are not always with God. Our busy lives cause us to get disconnected from God. When we are disconnected from God, an enormous loss occurs.

It's lonely not knowing God. People seek security in wealth, possessions, connections, and so forth, but God is the ultimate refuge. Those who surrender to God begin to taste the peace that passes all understanding.

We should deliberately cultivate a sense of the presence of God, and nourish it through daily prayer. God is with us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and when we are with God, we are also with one another.

WISDOM'S CORNER

When I met You

The following prayer was found on the body of a young soldier, killed in action during WWI.

Look, God, I've never spoken to you before, but now I just want to say 'hello.' They told me you didn't exist, and like a fool I believed them. But last night I looked up at the sky from a shell hole. When I saw the beauty of the stars and thought how big the universe is, I knew they were telling me a lie.

I wonder if you will shake hands with me when we meet? Somehow I feel you will understand all my failures. Strange how I had to come to this horrible place to get to know you. What was I doing before this?

There isn't much more to say, but I'm sure glad I got to know you today. I feel the zero hour will soon be here. This is going to be a horrible fight. Who knows? I may come to your house tonight.

I'm crying! Fancy me crying! I never thought this could happen to me. I have to go now. Strange, since I met you, I'm no longer afraid to die.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

"When you are with everyone but Me, you are with no one.

When you are with no one but Me,

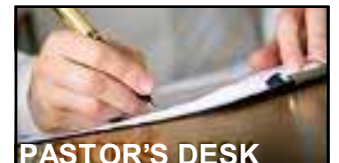

Dear friends,

I was reading the Chicago Tribune, and I noticed an entire page with an ad for "The Michelle Obama Inaugural Doll." I laughed. It was actually quite funny to me. Odd. And even senseless. Idols of the modern times appear unbelievably fast. I find this strange for a country that frequently changes its political leaders and has the strongest and best democracy. These dolls bring back to my mind some regimes where the people were expected to admire and bow down before their leaders. These dolls need to be prominently displayed. They cost $150.00, plus shipping and handling. "If not delighted," you can return it for a full refund. You can therefore get the First Lady doll, give it a place of honor in your home, and admire it morning, noon and night.

Have we returned to some old pagan customs with our worshiping of modern idols? Nothing against Michelle Obama, but this seems to cross some important boundaries.

We Catholics in the past (and occasionally now) have been harshly and unfairly attacked for our statues depicting saints.

Meanwhile, today everything seems permissible, but only under one condition: political correctness. If you fit into that category, then anything is permitted. If you don't fit in that category, then you are either considered conservative or unacceptable. Where are we headed? To whom do we bow? Are we creating new gods, messiahs, idols? Or is it after all simply about money, only money...

Next Sunday

Corpus Christi Procession after 9:30 Mass

Join us for the solemn procession of the Holy Eucharist next Sunday to celebrate the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ.

CROATIAN SCHOOL "Cardinal Stepinac" will hold its annual meeting this Wednesday, June 10, at 7 p.m. in the small hall, 2nd floor. The meeting agenda includes elections for the New School Board for the Year 2009-2010.

FAREWELL.... After 40 years in America, the family of Ante and Ikica Cuvalo will return to Croatia. We thank them for these years, their fellowship, their work, their participation in so many events, and their membership in our parish.

We wish them peace and happiness.

THANK YOU

A major undertaking has been accomplished in our parish, namely, the official parish records of baptisms, marriages, and deaths has been computerized. This simplifies the information in a way that makes it easily accessible. For this big job we are grateful to Dr. Ante Cuvalo, who has been working on this project the last few years.

Archdiocesan Catholic Charities expresses its thankfulness for the generous response of St. Jerome Parish to its Mother's Day Appeal!

Special Second Collection for Retired Archdiocese of Chicago Priests will be taken next weekend at the Masses. Be generous to those who worked so hard to bring the Body and Blood of Christ to the people.
