WEEKLY MEDITATION for the Feast of Christ the King

Today, we celebrate the feast day of Christ the King. In the U.S. we live in a republic, not a kingdom, and so the concept of a kingdom is somewhat alien to us. From TV, we are familiar with the pomp, the wealth, the crowns and the thrones of the royal families of Europe. On TV, we see the flashy extravagance of a human kingdom.

But the Kingdom of God that Christ the King ushers in is not about such royal trappings. The Kingdom of God is about the unity and order that Christ the King brings into our human lives. The role of any good king is to bring unity and order to his people. Christ is a good king.

In today's Gospel, we see our king reigning on the cross, wearing his crown of thorns. Through his sacrificial love offered on the cross, Our Lord and Savior brings forgiveness, eternal life and unity to the people of his realm. Jesus is a king who loves his people deeply. And, we, his subjects, want to return that love as best we can.

WISDOM'S CORNER

A Thanksgiving Prayer

Father in Heaven,
Creator of all
and source of all goodness and love,

Please look kindly upon us and receive our heartfelt gratitude in this time of giving thanks.

Thank you for all the graces and blessings that you have bestowed upon us,
spiritual and temporal:

- Our faith and religious heritage.
- Our food and shelter.
- Our health: physical, spiritual and moral.
- The loves we have for one another.
- Our family and friends.

Dear Father, in your infinite generosity,
please grant us continued graces and blessings throughout the coming year.

This we ask in the Name of Jesus, your Son and our Brother. Amen.

Happy Thanksgiving!

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

"Human government is more or less perfect as it approaches nearer or diverges farther from the imitation of this perfect plan of divine and moral government."

—John Adams

Freedom and Good

Dear friends,

In these coming days we will be hearing very often about freedom, because the great American feast day of Thanksgiving is near. And we are very thankful to God for our freedom.

Everyone struggles in the name of freedom. We all talk about freedom. We all want our little zone of freedom. For many people, freedom is a license to do whatever they want. For most people, freedom is essential to life.

We can ask ourselves what is freedom, really? What does freedom mean...

Freedom, of course, has a deep connection to the ability to discern and select — a creative human ability. Freedom is seen as the source of the best human possibilities. But frequently our world forgets that freedom has only one fundamental meaning: the ability to do good. Without that meaning, freedom becomes absurd and is limited. If freedom is separated from the ability to do good, then such a freedom is not really free.

To be able to select a path of freedom, requires understanding what freedom is. To be able to travel down a path of freedom and to always choose and do good, requires having a lot of freedom! If we are unable to choose and do good, it is a sign that we are not as free as we might think we are — something may be enslaving us.

May true freedom always be an inspiration for us to do good and an inspiration for greater love toward our neighbor!

A plea from Fr. Joe

As we are heading towards the 100 years of St. Jerome, we are working on our parish archives. Our goal is to sort all the documents and to make the whole project digitalized. We have some professionals to help us out. I think this will be a uniquely amazing project. I personally would like to ask you to share with us

- ◆ any old photos,
- ◆ books,
- ◆ films,
- ◆ documents, community events,
- ◆ your personal family photos or documents that are connected to St. Jerome.

As we are retracing our history, going back to 1912, your help will be irreplaceably important. I thank you wholeheartedly for your help.

New Altar Servers

We are welcoming three of our new altar servers to their new duties at today's 9:30 a.m. They are:

Emily Bertucci

Ross Valenti

Olivia Wroblewski

Moreover, Zachary Sandoval will soon be joining as a new server.

Congratulations to the families and the servers for their willingness to sacrifice in order to help all of us pray at Mass!

Fr. Robert Barron... Sundays at 9:30am

On WGN-TV Chicago and WGN America on cable Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. is the new show with Fr. Robert Barron, who is the first priest since Archbishop Fulton Sheen in the 1960s to have a regular, national program on a commercial television network. Watch it (or record it and watch it later) to hear a witty, smart and good voice.

This week's Second Collection will be for the Archdiocese of Chicago Campaign for Human Development, which has as its goal addressing and combating the root causes of poverty.

Spare change campaign concluding

Please, in the next week, return your baby bottles to support the Women's Centers of Chicago as they help mothers and their unborn children.

Bring coats & blankets for homeless

Unfortunately the homeless are without coats and blankets for the coming winter. If you can donate old coats and blankets, they would appreciate it.

FALL FOOD DRIVE is under way

Bring your non-perishable food for the poor to the church's entrance area. Thank you!

Presentation of Gifts

If you would like to present the gifts at any Mass, especially if it is a Mass for your intention, please see our ushers before Mass. It would be beautiful if we would have different families at each Mass.
