WEEKLY MEDITATION for the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

How do we respond to the Word of God and to the various acts of God in our lives? Do we allow the trials and tribulations of this world to overwhelm the tender seed growing within us? Do we allow the cares of this world, our ambitions or our desires for success and happiness, to choke out the messages that God sends us through the various events of our daily lives and through the various people we encounter? How do we respond to the Word of God is the key to how fruitful the Gospel is going to be in our lives. Unlike the situation in nature, we can, as it were, change the kind of soil that we are. God allows the seed to land on the hard paths, on the rocky ground and in the thickets of our lives in the hope that in those places it will find a place to mature and bear fruit, that those things which hinder the growth will be removed and that the soil may be just a little deeper that it at first appears to be in those rocky places.

The parable of the Sower

WISDOM'S CORNER

We just send one or two...

A young African woman came to the U.S. from Angola. Her name was Maria and she was always laughing with joy. One day she went to a meeting in her church on evangelizing, on spreading the Word of God to people who needed to hear the Gospel. They were talking about pamphlets, missions, campaigns, and all the rest.

At one point someone turned to Maria and said, "What do they do in your church in Angola, Maria?"

"In my church," said Maria, after a moment's thought, "we don't give pamphlets to people or have missions. We just send one or two Christian families to live in a village. And when people see what Christians are like, then they want to be Christians themselves."

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

"It is not always granted to the sower to live to see the harvest."

— Dr. Albert Schweitzer

Me & us!

Dear Friends,

It is interesting how our culture is shifting, how more difficult it is to find steady, solid characters who value principles.

We are obsessed with the wrong things: What other people think of us, how they behave, act, what they wear, drive, what kind of money they make.

We are obsessed with the outside so much. Image is the central point of our lives. Shallowness is common ground for many. Celebrities, all kinds of them, including the famous Florida mother, are on every page, every channel, every Facebook page.

We are obsessed with other people's lives but not to help, nor to understand, but to entertain us.

It is so much about me when it comes down to needs, but it is so much about them when it comes to conflicts and problems.

We all have needs for self-expression, we all have needs for self-pity and self-understanding, but also we should know that other people wish to be understood, cared for and accepted.
