WEEKLY MEDITATION for the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord

The Ascension of Jesus is the climax of his victory over sin and death. It is a day of joy and hope. Jesus wants us to share in his victory. It's important to realize that he hasn't left us, but is still with us, helping us in our struggles.

Jesus was no longer walking among us, but he hadn't left entirely. He had simply taken on a new role. The Ascension of Jesus does not represent his removal from the earth, but his constant presence everywhere on earth.

A sense of the presence of Christ with us doesn't change the world for us, but it can give us the courage to face it. God's closeness shields us against a sense of abandonment and despair.

In spite of the grave failings of his followers, and terrible persecutions, the Gospel has come down to us across two thousand years. This is because of Christ's promise: "I will be with you always, to the very end of time."

Jesus now depends on us. We are his witnesses before the world. When we witness to truth, justice, love and peace, we point to Jesus.

On Omaha Beach...

Dear Friends,

On my journey these days in Europe, I was in Normandy. An interesting place. History took place here in the beginning of June 1944 when the Americans and the British attacked Hitler's forces. About 80,000 allied soldiers were killed in Normandy alone.

It is very touching and emotionally powerful to stand at Omaha Beach and to come to the cemetery where 9,387 American soldiers are buried. Of these, 82 were brothers who died on June 5th and June 6th. Among them are the two brothers (Preston and Robert Niland) whose lives inspired the mega film, "Saving Private Ryan" (Block F : Row 15 : Graves 11 & 12). A third brother served in the Pacific and a fourth one was back home. Among the graves it is important to see a father and a son: Ollie Reed and Ollie Reed, Jr. Besides all of these graves, there is a wall of honor on which are inscribed the names of 1,557 soldiers whose bodies are missing. The cemetery is perfectly kept. White crosses with the names of the fallen along with their date of birth, date of death, the unit they served in, and, on the back of the cross, the number from their dog tag. I noticed that on some of the graves it simply said: "Known only to God."

At Omaha Beach you can feel the strength of the wind, the power of silence, and the history that is ever present. German bunkers are still here, and their machine guns as well, as if it all happened yesterday. The German cemetery is not far away with 21,000 buried and a black cross above the graves. It all reminds me of the Roman quote (Ciceronian): Historia est magistra vitae. History is the tutor of life.

The Movie premiere of the Father Zlatko Sudac movie has been postponed

The June 9 Chicago world premiere of the documentary film "Sudac: The Story of Father Zlatko Sudac" has been postponed due to unavoidable scheduling conflicts.

The film's director says they plan to re-schedule this Chicago world premiere for a later date and will post an update on their website (www.visionfilms.tv/sudac) once a date is confirmed. They are very sorry for any inconvenience this caused.

If you have already purchased a ticket to this event there are two options available:

1. A full reimbursement within 30 days; or
2. The option to hold on to your current ticket(s) which will be valid for the future Chicago screening.

A message from Fr. Sudac: My dear friends in Christ,

I wanted to write to you personally to let you know about the postponement of this event, and to thank you for your interest in this project. I was looking forward to being with you via Skype, but we will have to save that for a later time.

I also want to thank you for your many prayers for me and for my ministry. You cannot imagine how much that means to me! To everyone who has asked for my prayers, I want to assure each of you that I regularly pray for and offer the Holy Mass for all your needs and intentions.

May Our Lord be the strength and comfort of your life! Remain strong in your faith, and trust Him in ALL things!

And may Almighty God bless you – Father, Son and Holy Spirit!

In Christ, Fr. Zlatko Sudac
