WEEKLY MEDITATION for the Fourth Sunday of Easter

Who is the Good Shepherd?

Among those in Palestine who originally heard Jesus, the word "shepherd" was a synonym for selfless love, sincerity, commitment and sacrificial service.

Clearly, when Jesus chose that word to denote his life and mission, it was a most fitting term.

The prophets pointed out the main duties of a good shepherd:

- 1) A good shepherd leads the sheep to the pasture, provides them with food and water and protects them. In Palestine, the shepherd went in front and the sheep followed behind.
- 2) He guarded them, not allowing them to get lost in the desert or become victims of robbers and wild animals—preventive vigilance.

- 3) He went in search of the lost ones and healed their wounds.

- 4) He was ready to surrender his life for his sheep—redemptive vigilance.

Jesus fulfills that description.

WISDOM'S CORNER*Alexander, a shepherd of soldiers*

When the emperor Alexander the Great was crossing the Makran Desert on his way to Persia, his army ran out of water. The soldiers were dying of thirst as they advanced under the burning sun. A couple of Alexander's lieutenants managed to capture some water from a passing caravan. They brought some to him in a helmet.

He asked, "Is there enough for both me and my men?"

"Only you, sir," they replied.

Alexander then lifted up the helmet as the soldiers watched. Instead of drinking, he tipped it over and poured the water on the ground. The men let up a great shout of admiration. They knew their general would not allow them to suffer anything he was unwilling to suffer himself.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

"I have always found that mercy bears richer fruits than strict justice." — A. Lincoln

The Marian MonthDear Friends,

This month is dedicated to Mary, the mother of Christ. May is in a special way dedicated to her.

I love this woman. Why? I love her because of her gentleness, her gentle life, gentle attitude and never-ending love.

I love her because of her silence. She is the woman embraced by silence. Silence is powerful. It speaks more strongly than words, deeper than speech.

I love her because of her very few words spoken. She doesn't speak much, but says much. Her speech and her words are used only to lift up. She understands words to be God's pure gift.

I love her because of her obedience. She understands perfectly that great reality because through obedience, we come to God himself. She listened to her Son without words, without additional questions.

I love her because of her suffering. She understands the power of suffering that is redeeming. The suffering that saves and leads to the presence of eternal light.

I love her because she is the woman of faith. She trusts her God unconditionally. She believes even in days that look hopeless.

I love her because she is the woman of peace. Her life leads us to the reconciliation between God and us.

I love her because she understands the power of love. She became the woman of love. Because of her we understand one of the basic definitions of love, that is, unselfishness. Love never thinks of itself. Love always leads the human being to his or her real self and finally to God.

Therefore, let us find a friend in Mary. Let us walk with her. Let us entrust our life and our suffering to her. Let us pray together with her. She understands the gift of grace. She is the one full of grace.

Hail, Mary, full of grace! Pray for us.

Farewell Fest on Thursday for St. Jerome Principal Trumblay

Please join us this Thursday, May 19 from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the St. Jerome Parish School Hall for a farewell celebration honoring our principal, Mr. Peter Trumblay. Soon he will be taking on the challenges of his new job; we congratulate him and we want him to know our gratitude for his 10 years of dedicated service here at St. Jerome School.

Invitation and RSVP forms are available in the back of church. Please RSVP as soon as possible but no later than Monday to Jan Ferro 312-560-3864 or Pauline Dengler 312-375-5416.

St. Jerome Sox Night is this Monday evening, May 16

St. Jerome Night at White Sox stadium is a five-year tradition that is just around the corner. A whole section is reserved for us, but tickets are almost gone. The date is Monday the 16th of May in the evening. Our choir children will perform the National Anthem, so aim to arrive by 6:30 p.m. Tickets are available in the rectory for $20.

Kudos to St. Jerome School Alum Joseph Segvich, who attends Lewis University, on making the dean's list.

Congratulations to Theo Mossman of our 7th Grade, for doing well in the "11th Ward Boy & Girl of the Year Award" competition, which judges schoolwork, leadership and extracurricular activities. Theo was the runner-up for the 11th Ward's 7th-Grade Boys.

Have some good fun, help some good nuns

Enjoy the show "Sunday School Cinema" by Vicki Quade (of "Late Nite Catechism" fame), on Sunday May 29 at 3 p.m., at the Royal George Theatre at 1641 N. Halsted, Chicago. (More info: nuns4fun.com) This show will help the Daughters of St. Paul. Get tickets for $30 at Pauline Books, at 172 N. Michigan Ave. or email hburns@paulinemediamedia.com

Congratulations to our parishioners achieving academic milestones!

► Our parishioner Mark Sedevic is a young police officer, a husband, a father, an active member of the St. Jerome Youth Service Corps and now a Doctor of Education! Congratulations to Mark on his graduation from Olivet Nazarene University with a doctoral degree in Ethical Leadership! The Police Department will be enriched.

► Our parishioner Robert "Bobby" Cannatello Jr. is to be congratulated on graduating with distinction from the University of Illinois at Chicago's School of Architecture. We are grateful to have a brand-new gifted architect in our parish!

► Our parishioner Antonija Kraljevic is being awarded a Chemistry degree with distinction from Loyola University. Our heartfelt congratulations to her!

We are deeply proud and thank God for the achievements of our parishioners and former St. Jerome School students.

St. Jerome's 100th Anniversary

Our Parish Council has set up committees to plan and work toward celebrating our 100th anniversary of our parish's 1912 founding. If you would like to work on the following committees, join by calling the Rectory.

- ◆ Ad Book committee (get ads, desktop publishing, history)
- ◆ History of Our Parish committee
- ◆ PR/Publicity committee
- ◆ Decorating committee
- ◆ Entertainment/Music/Bands/Tambura committee
- ◆ Gala Banquet Program committee

Please mark your calendars for next year with this important date: Sunday, April 29, 2012 will be the date of our 100th Anniv. Mass and Gala Banquet!

- ◆ Holy Mass that Sunday will be celebrated by the Archbishop of Chicago, Cardinal Francis George.
- ◆ The Gala Banquet will be held in the Hilton Hotel and Towers on Michigan Avenue (10 minutes from our church).

Please invite family and friends to reserve this day for our special festivities!
