WEEKLY MEDITATION for the Fifth Sunday of Easter

For centuries before the birth of Christ, the wisemen of India prayed every morning: "From falsehood lead me to truth, from darkness lead me to light, from mortality lead me to immortality."

And centuries later Jesus spoke: "I AM the Way and the Truth and the Life." When he spoke these words to his disciples in today's Gospel, his words were long awaited by many seekers of truth.

Whether the truth-seekers are from India, or from Jesus' circle of disciples, or from a U.S. university, Jesus' words about himself informs us that he alone is the surest way to the Father; Jesus alone can authoritatively and flawlessly teach us the truth of the Father; and he alone brings us divine life.

Jesus is both the revealer and the revelation of the Father. He is the Word of God. If we want to know the Father, and what the Father wants of us, we must listen to his Word.

WISDOM'S CORNER

The faith to go on...

Dr. Robert Schuller, the legendary televangelist, said that there are two words that have killed more God-inspired hopes and dreams than anything else he could think of: "Be realistic." If we Christians, Dr. Schuller says, were "realistic" then nothing would be accomplished. But if we have a real, dynamic faith in Jesus, we can do anything. He cites the example of Tom Dempsey — a young man born with half a right foot and a deformed right arm. But Tom had a ton of faith in Jesus. Dempsey wanted to be a football player — in spite of his considerable handicaps. And he did play football. He became a kicker for his high school team. But that wasn't enough. He wanted to play college ball. And again, he became the kicker on his college team. But when he graduated from college, his dream became even wilder and more fantastic. He wanted to be a pro football player! A pro player with half a foot and a deformed right arm! Impossible? No coach would accept him. They all shook their heads — all except one. And it is ironic and perhaps more than coincidental that Dempsey became a kicker for the New Orleans Saints. The rest, as they say, is history. In 1972, Dempsey kicked the longest field goal ever — 63 yards. All because he was not realistic. All because, Schuller tells us, Tom Dempsey had faith in Jesus, who gave him the strength to do what he needed to do.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

"There are only 2 ways to live your life. One is as though nothing is a miracle. The other is as though everything is a miracle." — A. Einstein

Seeing...

Dear Friends,

Many of you might remember that several decades ago the Soviet dictator Nikita Khrushchev said proudly of his country's first man in space that he "didn't see any God there."

The Christian writer C.S. Lewis said, "If a man never sees God on the earth, he will never see him in space; but if a man sees God here in the faces of men and women in his daily life, then when you hurl him into space, he will put his hand upon the face of God." Lewis concluded, "The seeing eye is tremendously important." The eye discerns such evidence as it is equipped to acknowledge.

The question before us is: How and when do we see God, the footprints of God's presence, the signs of God's love?

Seeing God's presence among us is a matter of wisdom and spiritual seeing. It is like in anything else. Some people notice every detail in every moment of every day, but some people never see any. Is it because of their spiritual blindness, or because they concentrate so much on themselves, or because they understand only the experience of their five senses?

Jesus gives us guidance that through him who is the way and the truth and the life we can experience the fullness of life and his presence among us.

Seeing further is a deep desire of our souls, seeing more than we can physically experience is a desirable state for our souls. Taking Christ seriously will take us on serious roads to better grasping ourselves and our world.

Chewing gum at Mass

Brothers and sisters, if we can't refrain from the common (and seemingly growing) practice of chewing gum for two hours a week, maybe we should re-examine our attitude toward worship (2 Corinthians 13:5) in order to give proper praise, honor, glory and respect to our heavenly Father from whom all blessings flow (Psalm 89:7; James 1:17) and proper respect to Jesus in the Eucharist (John 6).

Chewing gum in church is not only indecent and not cultured, but it is also very disrespectful. Please take a note...
