Weekly Meditation for the Ascension

Today we celebrate the Ascension of Jesus into heaven. It is a day for openness and joy. It is a day for renewing our hope in the goal towards which the Lord is leading us, namely, a place in His kingdom. This feast is as much about us as about Jesus. His ascension shows us where the goal of our earthly journey lies. It is a goal and a destiny that defies even our imagination. It pushes out our horizons beyond the boundaries of this world. It gives an eternal dimension to our lives. Jesus went back to the source, the Alpha and the Omega. This is the meaning of His Ascension. He is united with God, and God is present everywhere. We live in the hope that the words of Jesus will come true for us: 'Where I am, you too shall be.' Meanwhile our task is to live the Gospel and be His witnesses.

Our Parish History / Through Our Stories Beautiful memories

Since our Centennial celebration on April 29th, I've been going down memory lane. I joined the St. Jerome Parish fifty years ago when I married my husband Pete.

Fathers' Mark Kozina, Paul Maslach, and Ivan (John) Bradvica were a big influence on our family. They were our spiritual teachers and we called each "friend." Our son PJ, at the age of seven joined the first Cardinal Stepinac Croatian School in 1973. Most Saturday mornings I would stay along with my toddler daughter and help Father John with the children. I learned many Croatian words, songs, and prayers ("Not bad for an Italian girl."), and my three year old daughter Leslie could sing "Lijepa nasa" from top to bottom to the delight of Father John and her own dad.

It would be remiss if I didn't mention the wonderful Sisters who taught at St. Jerome. Too many to mention but two who stand out in my mind, Sister Bernadette with her gentleness but firm hand, and Sister Lucille who was feisty but had a heart of gold. These two beautiful women are gone now as is Fathers' Mark and John, but they live in my heart and mind.

Throughout the years whenever I entered our beautiful church, I felt as if I were stepping into a favorite relative's or friend's home filled with warmth and love. Thank you St. Jerome Parish for the memories.
