21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

State fairs are famous for their many contests. The best cow, the best pig, the best sheep are hailed as "Grand Champions." The best cake, the best raspberry jam, the finest pickles, and the most delectable pie are awarded blue ribbons. Cheese and butter, honey and maple syrup, fruits and vegetables, agricultural products of all kinds win prizes of distinction based on criteria for their category. Hand-crafted items are also entered into competition, and ribbons won displayed on the home mantle. While almost anyone can enter one of these contests, there is only one blue ribbon, only one grand champion.

In Sunday's Gospel we hear Jesus respond to a question posed to him about the number who will be saved. One of the tenets of our faith concerns the universal salvific will of God, that is, God wants everyone to be saved. But God has also given humankind free will, meaning that people have a choice in accepting God's invitation to salvation. For those of us who are believers, it can be difficult to comprehend that someone would not want to enjoy eternal life. But that is a choice that God offers, and the Gospel this Sunday reinforces the idea that being saved is more than just a casual acquaintance with Jesus.

Like a competition at the state fair, there are criteria for entering the kingdom of God. They are not mysterious. There is not some secret code that we need to know. What is needed is clearly spelled out just like the rules for entering a pie or jar of canned peaches. We need to love God. We need to listen to his word. We need to be compassionate toward others. We need to love our neighbor. The difference between these criteria and entering a state fair contest is that there is always more than one grand champion in the Christian life. Everyone who follows faithfully gets a blue ribbon.

21. NEDJELJA KROZ GODINU

Pripadati zajednici, bilo izraelskoj ili Crkvi, ne osigurava spasenje. Današnja liturgijska čitanja nas pozivaju na obraćenje i djelovanje. Pravovjerje bez pravog življenja ne spašava. Vjera se ne prenosi riječima, već djelima, životom. Prvo čitanje nam otvara neočekivana obzorja sveopćeg spasenja. Odlomak spada među najljepše bisere u knjizi Izaije proroka. Svi puci i jezici vidjet će Slavu Jahvinu. "Preživjeli" vjerni Ostatak nakon babilonskog izgnanstva naviještati će Slavu narodima u Taršišu, Putu, Ludu, Mošeku, Rošu i Tubalu, Javanu, k dalekim otocima. Znači, zahvaćen je cijeli tada poznati svijet. Oni će doći da prinesu prinos u Domu Jahvinu. Vrhunac u ovom proroštvu: "Gospodin će uzeti sebi između njih svećenike i levite". Najavljuje se novo svećeništvo, ne po krvi i baštinjeno, već po pozivu, karizmi, kao dioništvo u Kristovom svećeništvu. Izrael mora biti svjetlo narodima.

Na pitanje: "Gospodine, je li malo onih koji se spašavaju?", Isus odgovara kako to nije važno, a navodi što treba činiti da se spasiš. Svima upravlja riječ: "Borite se da uđete na uska vrata." Poziva na duhovnu, moralnu borbu. Traži se napor. I kad se vrata zatvore, kucat će oni koji se ne spašavaju. I oni pokazuju izvjesni napor, ali taj je uzaludan.

Oni koji su ostali "vani" pozivaju se da su s Isusom jeli i pili, slušali njegove propovijedi na svojim trgovima. Isus im upravlja teške riječi: "Ne znam odakle ste. Odstupite od mene, svi zlotvori!". To su oni koji su odbili Krista i drugima zabranili pristup. "Plač i škrgut zubi" slika je boli i patnje u paklu. Podsjeća nas to na Isusov pravorijek na sudu: "Odlazite od mene, prokleti, u oganj vječni, pripravljen đavlu i anđelima njegovim!"

Kome Isus upravlja ove riječi? Povijesno Židovima, kojima želi prodrmati lažnu sigurnost da pripadnost izabranom narodu sama po sebi osigurava spasenje. Prorok gleda u duhu kako sa svih strana svijeta dolaze pogani, i zasjest će za stol u kraljevstvu Božjemu. I ovi posljednji bit će prvi.

Ali ove riječi su upravljene i učenicima i svim vjernicima koji se hrane euharistijskom hranom i slušaju Kristovu riječ, ali ne žive po njoj. Isus želi i nama prodrmati lažne sigurnosti. Ulaze kroz uska vrata u kraljevstvo Božje oni koji žive u skladu s Božjom voljom, koji prihvaćaju bližnjega ne samo kao nužno zlo, već kao sputnika, brata, pa i onoga koji im ide na živce, koji usklađuju svoj život sa zahtjevima ljubavi prema Bogu i bližnjemu.

FIVE FAITH-FILLED LESSONS THAT SPORTS CAN TEACH YOU

Whether it's exclamation of "Thank You, Jesus!" after winning the championship or witnessing an entire team praying in support of an injured player, God's presence is experienced in sports. From little league diamonds and Friday Night Lights, to marathons and floor routines, here are 5 faith-filled lessons that sports can teach you.

1) THERE'S ALWAYS HOPE. JUST ASK THE CUBS.

...affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts... (Rom 5: 3-5)

No other team in professional sports has suffered a championship drought like the Chicago Cubs. Though they have had some impressive seasons, the last time they won a World Series was 102 years ago. Despite their lack of a championship, Cubs fans remain ever vigilant, and always possess hope in the next play, the next game or the next season. You can too.

2) FAITH IS PERSEVERANCE. EVERYONE LOVES AN UNDERDOG.

Let us... persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith. (Heb 12:1-2)

There is no narrative more fitting than that of a boy who uses his wits and a slingshot to claim victory over a muscled giant. The David vs. Goliath story lives on in the stories of Notre Dame walk-on Rudy Ruettiger, battle-of-the-sexes victor Billie Jean King and the famed 1955 Milan High School Basketball Team that inspired "Hoosiers." Like these great underdogs, you too can overcome the impossible.

3) FAITH HONORS RITUALS AND TRADITIONS. DON'T WASH THOSE SOCKS!

...do this in memory of me. (1 Cor 11:25)

Traditions are preserved throughout sports and practiced by teams and individuals alike. Even though ritual won't ensure a victory, it's a good reminder that something important is happening. Touching a rock, doing a dance, reciting a prayer, or wearing the same unwashed socks may seem silly to an outsider, but it's downright sacramental. Honor the rituals that give your life meaning.

4) PRACTICE MATTERS. EXCELLENCE IS WORTH PURSUING.

Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus... (1 Thes 5:17-19)

Coaching great Vince Lombardi said, "Practice doesn't make perfect, perfect practice makes perfect." The quality of one's rehearsal impacts the quality of one's performance. Though it can be tedious and painful, practice conditions us and prepares us; it enables us to make the most of our gifts and abilities. Just as athletes train, Christians grow in relationship to God and others through practicing their faith. What daily or weekly exercises are strengthening your spiritual life?

5) MIRACLES HAPPEN. YOUR HOLE IN ONE IS COMING!

Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." (Mk 10:27)

In the final seconds of the 1980 men's Olympic semi-final game when U.S. beat the powerhouse Soviet Union by one goal, sportscaster Al Michaels declared, "Do you believe in miracles?" While perhaps overused in the world of sports, miracles are clear signs of hope — for both athletes and people of faith. So the next time you witness a three-pointer by a kid fresh off the bench, tell yourself: All things are possible!
