13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We all have our disappointments in life. They can range from the inconsequential (the store is out of the brand of soap that I have a coupon for) to the very significant (a diagnosis of cancer or another serious illness). And we all deal with disappointments in different ways. Young children are very good at "catastrophizing" a disappointment. Mom's refusal to get that wanted candy bar in the grocery checkout line can lead to a tantrum. But as any mother knows, not giving in to a child's tantrum is teaching a lesson on how to deal with the inevitable disappointments that are part of each person's life.

In this Sunday's Gospel, James and John certainly weren't happy that a Samaritan village was not very welcoming to Jesus and his band of disciples. Recall that Samaritans believed that the place to worship God was on Mt. Gerizim, and because Jesus and his disciples were on the way to Jerusalem, the Samaritans were not interested in aiding his mission. Almost like five-year-olds at the candy display in the grocery checkout line, James and John were ready to call down fire from heaven to wipe out the Samaritans. Jesus did not hesitate to rebuke them for their outburst. On the other hand, even Jesus seemed to express his own sense of disappointment when he says in the Gospel to someone who wants to follow him, "The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head" (Lk 9:58).

How we deal with disappointment is a sign of maturity. Jesus makes the point in the Gospel that we have to move forward. Letting go of regrets and looking to the future is wholesome everyday advice. But putting those ideas into the realm of faith means that we confess our sins and seek absolution (the letting go) and direct our lives to God's kingdom. It is looking toward our ultimate future, which is eternal life in heaven.

13. NEDJELJA KROZ GODINU

Slijediti Isusa, slijediti njegov put znači ne ostati isti kao prije "susreta". Prihvaćanje Isusovog puta (kršćanstva) znači prihvaćanje radikalnog obraćenja. Da bi se nasljedovalo istinski Isusa potrebna je potpuna svjesnost i odlučnost. Istina, uvijek je bilo i bit će onih koji ga slijede iz radoznalosti, koji očekuju dobitak bilo na ovom ili onom svijetu, onih koji idu sa svojim poznanicima.... Ipak, Isus ne vodi u utopiju, niti je utopija stil njegovog življenja i navještanja. On je došao mijenjati svijet, mijenjati čovjeka, mijenjati ljudske odnose. Polazna osnovica sve promjene jest čovjekova promjena. Od čovjeka polazi sve, dobro i zlo, stari i novi svijet. Novi svijet, novo čovječanstvo, proističe iz čovjekove nutrine.

Onomu koji prihvaća kršćanstvo radi dobiti Isus odgovara da "Sin čovječji nema na što nasloniti glavu". Motiv slijeđenja Isusa ne može biti koristoljublje, pa čak niti koristoljublje na "drugom svijetu". Izgleda da se Isusa ne može nasljedovati ako se hoće nešto postići ZA SEBE. Tko se god bori za sebe neće naći podršku u Isusu. On je sam sebe predao za druge i stalno se predaje. Tu i jest njegova veličina i njegova objava. On je ljubav koja se predaje za druge. Zato će ga najbolje razumjeti oni koji ljube, koji ne žive za sebe nego za druge. Isusova je uputa da se nađe smisao i sreća u življenju za druge. Sva su se "čuda svijeta" dogodila samo kod onih koji su živjeli za druge ljude, kod onih koji nisu mislili na sebe i svoju korist.

U drugom Isusovom pozivu još se više radikalizira odgovor. Tko god kalkulira, tko god očekuje da će biti kršćanin kad sredi sve "svoje stvari" nikada neće dočekati taj trenutak. Uvijek će trebati nekoga rađati ili nekoga ukapati, i tako odgađati provođenje (življenje) Isusovog programa. Uvijek će biti nedaća u životu, a radi njih ne treba odgađati preobrazu samoga sebe i svijeta. Još nije bilo razdoblja niti života koji nije imao svojih poteškoća. Teškoće imaju svoju težinu ali se radi njih čovjek ne bi trebao gubiti. Neki izgube vjeru jer im je umro otac ili netko drugi. Bol i smrt nadvladava se novim životom, novim svjetlom. To je ono stanje kad odgađamo za sutra odricanje od nekih mana ili vršenje dobrih djela. To je stanje duše kad "tražimo opravdanje" u izvanjskim događanjima (umro mi otac... imam te i te poteškoće). Isus poziva sad i sad treba odgovoriti, sad, danas, treba donijeti odluku i započeti živjeti novi život.

PONAŠANJE U CRKVI

Crkva je sveto mjesto jer u njoj slavimo i susrećemo Boga. Svojim aktivnim sudjelovanjem, pjesmom i molitvom pokazujemo koliko nam je stalo do susreta s Bogom. Sve ono što nas može u tome može smetati trebamo ostaviti izvan crkve. Stoga vas molimo da na to ovih dana još više pripazite te da u crkvu ne ulazite sa žvakama u ustima. Također, sjetite se utišati svoj mobilni prije ulaska u crkvu.

ŽUPNI ZBOR

Među darovima koje nam je Bog dao je i dar glazbe i pjesme. Radosna je dužnost svakoga tko je takav dar primio slaviti Gospodina glazbom i pjesmom, te uljepšati drugima misno slavlje i druge prigode. Sv. Augustin je rekao: Tko pjeva, dvostruko moli! Probe su nedjeljom u podne (nakon hrvatske sv. mise).

SRETNO NA ODMORU

Ljeto je. Odmaramo se i oporavljamo, makar i nakratko. Svatko odmor odabire prema svojim željama i mogućnostima. Želimo promijeniti svakodnevni ambijent i sunčane ljetne dane provesti u nekom idiličnom okruženju - savršenom za odmor i ljenčarenje, ili za aktivno odmaranje i ludi provod. U svakom slučaju, osim tijela, vrlo je važno odmoriti i dušu. Ponekad od silne želje za idealnim odmorom, zaboravimo na tu važnu činjenicu pa na godišnjem odmoru činimo sve ono što obično ne činimo, a ono što bismo trebali, često zaboravljamo. I na odmoru, Bog je s nama i željan je naše pažnje. A ako to želimo, daleko od svakodnevnih gužvi, možemo ga puno bolje osjetiti, primijetiti i doživjeti.

Dragi prijatelji i župljani, želimo vam da se s odmora vratite tjelesno i duhovno odmoreni, radosniji i mirniji, te bogatiji za neko lijepo iskustvo.

*Ljudi putuju pa se dive visovima planina, divovskim valovima mora, dugim tokovima rijeka, širokom prostranstvu oceana i kružnom gibanju zvijezda; a pored sebe prolaze
i - ne čude se ničemu.*

(sv. Augustin)

JULY 1 - CROATIA JOINING THE EUROPEAN UNION

Croatia is to join the European Union (EU) on July 1 and become its 28th member state. EU membership brings many opportunities and benefits to its member states. Croatia has a population of 4.4 million, bringing the total population of the EU from 502.4 million to 506.8 million. What else will Croatia bring to the EU?

"At all events, people who deny the influence of Europe's 'smaller nations' should remember that the Croats have the rest of us by the throat," wrote Norman Davies in his book "Europe: A History". The British historian was referring to a tie or cravat, worn every day by millions of men worldwide, whose Croatian origin reaches far into the past and is linked to love and devotion. "For centuries girls were tying scarves around their darlings' necks, namely when they were leaving for wars, as a token of love and fidelity, they were 'tying' or obliging them," explains Marijan Bušić, founder of the Academia Cravatica, a non-governmental organisation. Revealingly, the word "croata" can be found in many languages as the root of words meaning tie or cravat: the historical reason comes from the tight neck scarves worn by Croats in the French army during the Thirty Years War in the 17th century. The humble tie was soon accepted as a fashion accessory by the powerful French court, including King Louis XIV himself, and later spread to Britain and throughout the world. The Academia promotes the tie as part of Croatia's cultural heritage, and in 2003, broke a Guinness World Record by wrapping an ancient Roman amphitheatre in the port city of Pula with the world's longest tie - an 800-metre (2,640-foot) specimen.

While the origins of the tie may prove a surprise to the rest of Europe, the country has one "export" that is known and loved. Of Croatia's 7 native dog breeds, Dalmatians, with their distinctive brown or black spots and elegant bodies, have won global fame thanks to Walt Disney's cartoon "101 Dalmatians". Originating from the coastal region of Dalmatia on the Adriatic, these friendly dogs were first depicted in a number of paintings and church chronicles dating from between the 16th and 18th centuries, before becoming sought-after domestic pets hundreds of years later.

Nowadays, though, it seems both foreigners living in Croatia and sport aficionados abroad think of athletes as the country's best-known brand.

Tennis legend Goran Ivanišević and high jump champion Blanka Vlašić have made names for themselves internationally, taking their first sporting steps in a country whose 4.2 million population is fond of sport but where there is still a serious lack of financial support for athletes.

Alpine ski champions, sister and brother Janica and Ivica Kostelić, have also found stardom - even if Croatia has practically no ski resorts.

Croatia's football squad are ranked fourth on FIFA's world list, while its national handball team scooped the world champions title in 2003 and Olympic gold in 1996 and 2004. And in 2007 Croatia's water-polo squad were crowned world champions, while its top basketball players, Dražen Petrović, who died in 1993, and NBA star Toni Kukoč bounced Croatia into the sporting spotlight.

Of course, for much of Europe, Croatia's big draw is its tourism - and more specifically its pristine Adriatic coast dotted with more than a thousand islands and islets.

These vary from those with lunar-like surfaces such as Pag in the north, to islands dense with Mediterranean forest like the southern island of Mljet. It is not for nothing that Dubrovnik, perched on the coast, and gleaming with Baroque buildings, has earned its nickname as the "pearl of the Adriatic". A survey conducted within the EU showed that Croatia is best known for its natural beauty and tourism, public relations expert Božo Skoko told. "There is an overall consensus over that," he said
