1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

Clerow Wilson, Jr. is a Golden Globe and two-time Emmy Award winning actor. He is also un-known to most Americans by that given name. As a comedian he was known as "Flip" Wilson. He was the first African-American to host his own weekly variety show on television and was considered by Time magazine to be television's first black super-star. When Wilson would perform as Geraldine Jones in one of his stage personas, audience mem-bers could bet that a final excuse-making phrase would be, "The devil made me do it!" In the character of Geraldine, Flip Wilson played off of the hu-man predilection to give in to temptation.

With a history of over 2,000 years of Christ-ianity, the followers of Jesus today don't have many stumbling blocks to believing in him as God. Most Christians simply grow up with that understanding. It becomes a part of our common view of who Jesus is. In our day, it may be more difficult to thoroughly comprehend the other aspect of Jesus' nature: that he was fully and completely human, or as Eucharistic Prayer 4 states it, "he shared our human nature in all things but sin." If that is truly the case (and as Catholics, we believe that it is), then Jesus was sub-ject to all of the temptations and opportunities for sin that we ourselves experience.

This Sunday's Gospel about the temptations of Jesus often gets analyzed through an approach that looks for symbolic meaning in the three encounters between Jesus and the devil. That can be one way of examining at the story. But as we begin Lent, it might be good to take a more general view that simply presents Jesus as a man struggling against temptation. That is what we do each and every day. In that, he was just like us. He overcame temptation by understanding God's will for him. That sounds like a pretty good plan for our Lent as well.

1. KORI ZMENA NEDJELJA

Pustinja je u Bibliji povlašteno mjesto: daleko od ljudske vreve; mjesto gdje se doživljava Bog; gdje se istražuje Božji plan i traže uporišta za svoj život. No istodobno, pustinja je i mjesto gdje prebiva zlo i demonske sile, ona je mjesto velikog okršaja sa silom zla, sa samim Zlim.

K Isusu pristupa Sotona i kuša ga, napastuje ga, kao nekoć Adama. No, Adam izlazi iz toga dvo-boja poražen, a Isus pobjeđuje. U jednom trenutku Bog i Sotona, ljubav i mržnja, našli su se zajedno licem u lice. Možda nas pomalo zbunjuje činjenica da se Sotona, đavao, usudio približiti Isusu. Možda je to Isus učinio namjerno - dopustio je napasniku da mu se približi kako bi ga raskrinkao, zato da bismo ga prepoznali i u svim njegovim dolascima k nama, u svim njegovim zamkama, u svim njegovim kušnjama. Isus dopušta da ga Sotona kuša, i to prije svega da nama poruči da ćemo i mi također biti napastovani, ali nam daje primjer kako se hrvati i othrvati napasniku.

Jedna od najlukavijih zamki Sotone sastoji se upravo u tome što se čovjeka pokušava uvjeriti u nepostojanje Sotone, kao da ga uopće nema, da je to priča za zastrašivanje djece. Tako je prostor đavolskog djelovanja daleko veći, nije ničim ometan. Ta Isusova kušnja u pustinji jest objava njegove pobjede, i to u teškim časovima pokore i odricanja, pobjede u prostoru u kojem je đavao mislio da je gospodar. U svakoj pustinji našega života i u svim drugim situacijama đavao iskušava, napastuje. Želi i nas odvojiti od volje Očeve, od nasljedovanja Isusa. Međutim, evanđelje nam razotkriva kako je đavao slab, kako nije svemoćan, kako ga je moguće pobijediti u svakoj njegovoj zamci i kušnji.

Sotona traži od Isusa da pretvori kamenje u kruh. Tu je na djelu grijeh požude tijela: imati pod svaku cijenu, ne mareći puno za Božje zakone. Isus svojim odgovorom pokazuje da postoji nešto što je puno važnije od kruha, a to je riječ Božja. Druga kušnja je napastovanje vlašću. Varalica ljudi pokazuje Isusu sva kraljevstva svijeta koja će mu dati uz uvjet da se Isus pokloni pred njim. On želi dati Isusu ono što je već njegovo, što mu pripada. Treća kušnja je kušnja čašću. Ako se baci s hrama i ne bude mu ništa, narod će ga smatrati čudotvorcem, povjerovat će da je Mesija. Isus na sve te nagovore, napastovanja spremno odgovara biblijskim citatima i upozorava na jedinstveni put kojim mu je ići: put križa, vjere i ljubavi.

BAPTIZED

May God's abundant blessing be always with our newly baptised, their parents and godparents.

CATHOLIC MOVIE NIGHT

Today we will have an opportunity to see an excellent movie about St. Augustine "Restless Heart". This movie was screened last year in theatres through the country. It is a well produced, colorful movie that communicates uplifting messages about the power of God and the importance of truth. As such, viewers of faith will likely find it extremely nourishing. It contains, however, some violence and a cohabitation theme. The Catholic News Service classification is A-II (adults and adolescents). Showing will start at 6 p.m. in our Upper Small Hall. Welcome.

THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS

We will have the Stations of the Cross in English on Fridays during Lent at 7 pm. Join us.

CROATIAN AMERICAN RADIO CLUB ANNUAL BANQUET

Croatian American Radio Club invites you to the Annual banquet to celebrate their 79th anniversary as the oldest Croatian Radio Program in USA. The banquet will be held on Saturday, March 22, at the St. Jerome Hall beginning at 6:30 p.m. Tickets can be obtained from any member of the Croatian American Radio Club.

PARISH LENTEN RETREAT

Prayer is like breathing – you have to do it continually. But sometimes you need to pause and take a deeper breath. That's what a retreat is. Plan some kind of retreat this Lent for yourself. It could be out in nature, in some monastery or church. It could be a full day or an overnight. Or you could join us for a half day retreat.

All parishioners: adults and teens, women and man, are invited to a Lenten retreat on Sunday, March 23, starting at 1 p.m. We will enjoy Holy Scripture, liturgy, listen to some talks, and have a time for prayer and meditation. There will be some food, too. Join us!

GROW IN HOLINESS THIS LENT

The Church provides the faithful with a marvelous opportunity and a distinctive journey for spiritual growth and conversion during the penitential season of Lent. Blessed Pope John Paul II said, "The time of Lent is a special time for purification and penance, as to allow Our Savior to make us his neighbor and save us by his love".

Pope Benedict XVI reminded us what Lent is for: "It means accompanying Jesus as he travels to Jerusalem, the place where the mystery of his passion, death and resurrection is to be fulfilled".

In his message for Lent, Pope Francis concentrated on the poverty of Christ in becoming man, underscoring our duty to give equal loving witness in our care for the poor in our midst.

Pope Francis explained that "Lent is a fitting time for self-denial," and "we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty."

He also reminded us in his 2014 Lenten message, "Let us not forget that real poverty hurts: No self-denial is real without this dimension of penance. I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt" (Feb. 4 press conference).

We are reminded of Blessed Teresa of Calcutta, who also made note of the pain and suffering endured in wholeheartedly loving and serving. She said once, "I know it is not always easy to love. But when you love till it hurts, there is no more hurt, but only more love."

Parents are called by God to be the first and foremost educators of their children and can tremendously help to spiritually guide their domestic churches throughout Lent. You will participate more fully with the rhythm of the Church by setting examples for your family's Lenten spiritual practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Try your best to retreat from the busyness of the world and carve out meaningful prayer time within your domestic church. Gather your family each day, and set the tone with simple prayers and activities. Encourage your family to make this Lent their best ever by taking more time to reflect on Church teaching, put their faith into practice and retreat from the culture as much as possible during these 40 days of spiritual growth.

Give children practical suggestions they can carry out to fulfill Pope Francis' encouragement to reach out in love to the poor. Explain to your children that the poor are not merely the homeless or poverty-stricken people; they might be people at school or in the neighborhood who are starving for love. Ask children to venture out of their comfort zones to offer a kind word or gesture.

Discuss ideas together that you'll carry out as a family, calling to mind that, together, you can collectively grow in holiness as you accompany Our Lord during these Lenten days.

"KORIZMA NAM DOLAZI KAO PROVIDNOSNO VRIJEME DA UČINIMO ZAOKRET U SVOM ŽIVOTU"

Korizma nam dolazi kao providnosno vrijeme da učinimo zaokret u svom životu, da obnovimo sposobnost da reagiramo na stvarnost zla koje je trajni izazov. Korizmu treba živjeti kao vrijeme obraćenja, osobne i zajedničke obnove kroz približavanje Bogu i povjerljivo prijanjanje uz evanđelje. Na taj nam način omogućuje također gledati novim očima braću i njihove potrebe. Zbog toga je korizma povoljno vrijeme za obraćenje na ljubav prema Bogu i bližnjemu; ljubav koja zna usvojiti stav Gospodinove besplatnosti i milosrđa, koji "posta siromašan, da se vi njegovim siromaštvom obogatite" (usp. 2 Kor 8, 9). Razmatrajući središnja otajstva vjere, muku, smrt i uskrsnuće Kristovo, shvatit ćemo da nam je neizmjerni dar otkupljenja dan slobodnom Božjom inicijativom.
