THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

It is said that the famous early-20th century sculptor Auguste Rodin was once asked how he created such beautiful statues from large pieces of stone. "It is very simple," he said. "I choose a block of marble and chop off whatever I don't need." Perhaps it could be said that as we grow older, we are doing just the opposite; continually adding layers of things we don't need, traits we shouldn't have, until we are no longer recognizable to God. We have simply become a large piece of stone.

Today's Gospel reading from John is one of the more recognized passages from the Bible in that it is a rare description of Jesus showing anger and emotion. Finding a temple in which traders have set up tables to sell sacrificial animals to the people, he not only turns over their tables but grabs a whip and chases them out! After doing so, he turns to those remaining and says when the temple is torn down he will raise it again in 3 days. We know that the temple he referred to was his own body; we also must know in our hearts that he was asking us to remove from our temples all that we don't need, as well.

Each year, billions are spent in an effort to look better, feel better, and fool the world that we are better than before. But if we simply look within and understand that we have a solemn responsibility, we would begin to shine, because the human body shares in the dignity of "the image of God" - it is a human body precisely because it is animated by a spiritual soul, and it is the whole human person that is intended to become, in the body of Christ, a temple of the Spirit.

Every parish celebrates the anniversary of the ceremony in which its church was consecrated to God and dedicated to the worship of God. Today we celebrate the Feast of the Dedication of the Basilica of St. John Lateran in Rome. Even though people around the globe associate the pope with the more famous Basilica of St. Peter, his cathedral church as Bishop of Rome is the Basilica of St. John. This celebration is a sign of the unity of the church expressed in the ministry of the bishop of Rome. The church is not buildings; it is people united by the Spirit of God.

POSVETA LATERANSKE BAZILIKE

Lateranska bazilika se naziva "majkom svih rimskih crkava". Slaveći posvetu te crkve slavimo sve ostale crkve. Hram je važan zato što je on mjesto na zemlji gdje Bog boravi; mjesto Božje prisutnosti. No bez obzira koliko zdanje bilo važno, ono je ipak samo zdanje. Pavao insistira da su vjernici hram Božji; vjernici su manifestacija Boga u svijetu. Liturgijska čitanja donose dvije slike hrama Božjeg, tj. dvije slike zajednice vjernika. Slika u evanđelju je ozbiljna. Hram je postao mjesto trgovine; postoji opasnost da vjernici postanu okupirani materijalnim trgovanjem i zaborave na svoj pravi identitet. Isus ruši poredak vrijednosti trgovaca u hramu. Viđenje pak Ezekijela nudi potpuno drugačiju sliku. Tamo voda iz hrama preobražava sve što dotakne. Kao što voda teče iz hrama, tako milost teče iz hrama koji je narod Božji. To su dvije različite slike i svaka zajednica vjernika trebala bi se zapitati kojoj je slici bliža. Mogu li vjernici osvježiti ono što je ustajalo? Mogu li preoblikovati divljinu u mjesto života; zamrlo vratiti u život? Treba li doći do "prevrtanja" da bi se vjernik "preoblikovao"?

U evanđelju Isus tjera trgovce iz hrama. Opisana zgoda se dogodila u vrijeme blagdana Pashe. Moguće je da je Isusova reakcija bila uzrokovana vjerskom ravnodušnošću. Naime, na rimskim novcima je bio carski lik, koji je smatran božanstvom, te se taj novac nije mogao koristiti u hramu. Stoga su ondje bili mjenjači koji su ljudima "izlazili u susret". Isto tako, većina Židova koja je dolazila za blagdan, nije dovođila sa sobom životinje za žrtvu, nego su ih kupovali u Jeruzalemu. Prodavači su im i tu "izlazili u susret". Sve se to događalo u hramskom predvorju. Tjerajući trgovce iz hramskog predvorja, Isus najavljuje da je vrijeme ispunjenja došlo. A nazivajući Boga svojim Ocem, ističe da upravo on ima pravo nešto takvo činiti.

NOVEMBER 14 - ST. NICHOLAS TAVELIC AND COMPANIONS

The Franciscan friars were made the custodians of the shrines in the Holy Land by the Holy See in the year 1335. In some form or another, the Franciscan friars have been in the Holy Land ever since. Over the years there have been 158 Franciscans who have been martyred for the faith in the Holy Land.

On November 14 we celebrate 4 of those martyrs – Nicholas Tavelic and his missionary Companions. They are the only 4 Franciscans of those martyred in the Holy Land to be declared saints. They were canonized in 1970.

Nicholas was born in the year 1340 in Croatia. His was a noble and wealthy family. Feeling the call of a religious vocation, he joined the Franciscans and first preached in Bosnia. In the year 1384 Nicholas along with some other friars volunteered for the Holy Land missions and were given permission to go there. Here they looked after the holy places, the places Jesus walked, taught and suffered over. Fr. Nicholas and his companions cared for the holy places and served the Christian living in around Jerusalem and the pilgrims, in a place formerly Christian and then in the hand of the Muslims.

For the Christians living in the Holy Land, and for those on pilgrimages, being a Christian and expressing one's faith outwardly in a region dominated by Islam, could be very dangerous. In the year 1391 friar Nicholas along with his companions Friars Deodat, Peter of Narbonne, and Stephen of Cuneo decided that they would take a very direct approach to convert the Muslims in Jerusalem. At the time, and in some places around the world still today, when a Muslim converts to Christianity they may be put to death.

Still, without fear, on November 11, 1391, Fr. Nicholas and his companions went to the huge Mosque of Omar in Jerusalem and asked to see the Imam, the Muslim religious superior. In his presence, they read a prepared text that said that told the Gospel story and ended with the statement that people must accept Jesus Christ. When they were ordered to retract their statement, they refused. They were seized, and then beheaded before a large crowd.

St. Francis of Assisi gave the friars two missionary approaches. For some time, Nicholas and his companions followed the first approach. They lived quietly among those whom they wished to convert and gave witness to Jesus Christ. Then moved by grace, they felt called to take the second approach. They openly preached the Gospel, no matter what the consequences may be. Both approaches have merit and both approaches bear fruit in their time. To this very day Franciscans in the Holy Land are still working under very difficult situations giving witness to Christ by their way of life and example. And it is through the witness of the martyrdom of St. Nicholas Tavelic and his companions that the Christians in the Holy Land draw courage even today in the extraordinarily sufferings which they live day after day.

cholas Tavelic and his companions that the Christians in the Holy Land draw courage even today in the extraordinarily sufferings which they live day after day.

14. STUDENOGA - SV. NIKOLA TAVELIĆ

Nikola se rodio oko 1350. godine. Potekao je iz obitelji šibenskih Tavelića. U mladosti je stupio u franjevački red. Želja za misionarskim radom dovela ga je godine 1379. u Bosnu gdje je 12 godina bosanskim krstjanima propovijedao pravu kršćansku vjeru te ih veliko mnoštvo vratio u Katoličku crkvu. Nakon smrti Tvrtka, prvog bosanskog kralja, 1391. godine, u Bosni su nastali neredi koji su onemogućili svaki duhovni rad. Nikola je s dvojicom svoje subraće franjevaca – fra Adeodatom iz Ruticinja i fra Petrom iz Narbone – kao misionar pošao u Svetu zemlju. Živeći i propovijedajući s franjevcima iz raznih europskih zemalja pokazao je svoje široko srce i muslimanima u Palestini, pa je iz ljubavi prema njima prolio svoju svjedočku krv.

Već prva pismena izvješća, pisana brzo nakon mučeništva, govore o Nikoli i njegovim drugovima kao o mučenicima. Štovanje se ubrzo proširilo i izvan franjevačkog reda. U šibenskoj biskupiji se službeno štuje kao blaženik od 1889. godine. Jači pokret za štovanje bl. Nikole započeo je 1935. godine. Plod je toga pokreta bio da je Sveta Stolica 1937. godine protekla Nikolino štovanje na sve hrvatske biskupije. Pobožnost i štovanje prema bl. Nikoli najviše je širio Vjesnik bl. Nikole Tavelića. Papa bl. Pavao VI. proglasio ga je 1970. godine svetim. Time je postao prvi Hrvat koji je uzdignut u popis svetaca.
