17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There is a certain fast-food company that sells hamburgers. In their advertising, they claim that their product has the ability to satisfy our cravings. In fact, several TV ads depict their hamburger calling people up on the phone, ostensibly getting them to stop whatever it is they are doing to satisfy their craving. Nothing can resist them! Is this company creative? Perhaps; but a better question might be, is their product fulfilling? For a brief period our hunger is satisfied, but as with all urges and cravings, they soon return.

Today's Gospel reading is the only miracle story told in all 4 Gospels, the feeding of the 5,000. It is theorized by some that one aspect of the miracle was Jesus' trust in our ability to share. As the baskets of fish and bread were passed, the people took what they needed and shared the rest. But the greater symbolism to take away from today's reading is that Jesus Christ, the bread of life, removes all hunger and all needs and continues to nourish us forever. All that we crave truly resides in the loving arms of the Son of God.

God has placed in all of us a longing for truth and goodness that only he can satisfy. God immediately touches and directly moves the heart of man. The 5,000 people had finally arrived at their destination, seeking to have their souls fed through the teachings of Jesus. And just as he instructed them to lie down in the grass, rest and be fed, so too are we to take this and every Sunday as an opportunity to rest, reflect, and be nourished by the Word of God.

17. NEDJELJA KROZ GODINU

"Kruh je važan, sloboda još važnija ali vjernost i istinsko klanjanje Bogu su najvažniji" - tako je napisao u svoj dnevnik u koncentracijskom logoru, isusovac Alfred Delp. Ono što slušamo u današnjem evanđelju na tragu je tih riječi. Isus primjećuje potrebe ljudi i čudesno hrani gladno mnoštvo. Ljudi se, međutim, zaustavljaju pri tom, za njih senzacionalnom događaju, te žele Isusa zakraljiti, misleći da imaju pred sobom nekoga tko će za njih brinuti i kako se više neće morati skrbiti za svoj svakodnevni kruh. No, Isusu je nešto drugo važno. Za njega u prvom planu nisu tjelesne potrebe ljudi, on ovim čudesnim umnažanjem kruha želi uputiti na nešto više, na nešto važnije. On želi pojasniti kako u njemu i po njemu Bog sam želi čovjeka susresti i osloboditi ga za pravo čovječstvo. Naša je dužnost da u granicama svojih mogućnosti pomognemo ublažiti glad u svijetu i tako mnogima omogućimo život dostojan čovjeka. No, smisao čovjekova života nije samo u brizi za hranu i materijalne potrebe. Čovjek želi živjeti kao slobodno biće, slobodno od svega što sužuje njegove životne mogućnosti. Ipak, i sama sloboda za kojom čovjek teži nije najveće dobro.

Sljedećih nedjelja slušat ćemo nastavak današnjeg evanđelja. Isus upućuje na živi kruh koji silazi s neba, kruh koji je On sam. "Tko jede moje tijelo i pije moju krv ima život vječni". Zbog ovih teško razumljivih riječi nastaje svađa među njegovim slušateljima i mnogi odlaze od njega. I danas mnogi imaju poteškoća s onim što Isus od njih očekuje, mnogi njegovoj Crkvi okreću leđa. Ostaju ravnodušni prema daru njegova Tijela i Krvi u euharistiji. Mnogi kažu: Ja idem u crkvu kada za to imam potrebu! Prema Delpu, sloboda je važnija od kruha, ali je vjernost i istinsko klanjanje Isusu najvažnije.

FR. ROBERT BARRON APPOINTED AUXILIARY BISHOP OF LOS ANGELES

On Tuesday, July 21, Pope Francis formally announced Fr. Robert Barron's appointment as auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

Bishop-Elect Barron is the founder of Word on Fire Catholic Ministries, host of the award-winning Catholicism film series, and since 2012 has served as the Rector/President of the University of Saint Mary of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary outside of Chicago, IL. His website, WordOnFire.org, reaches millions of people each year. His regular YouTube videos have been viewed over 13 million times. Next to Pope Francis, he is the most-followed Catholic leader on social media. This is Bishop-Elect Barron's statement:

It was with enormous surprise that I received word of my appointment as auxiliary bishop of Los Angeles, but it is with a humble and joyful heart that I accept it. The Church of Los Angeles - the most populous in the United States - is energetic, diverse, and creative. Over the years, I've visited many times, including multiple trips to the Los Angeles Religious Education Congress in Anaheim; most recently, I was in the Archdiocese for a lecture at Thomas Aquinas College. So though I can't claim to know it well, I have been able to taste and see some of its richness.

The late Francis Cardinal George - the spiritual grandfather of Word on Fire - was a mentor and friend to me. The mission closest to his heart was the evangelization of the culture, bringing Christ to the arenas of media, politics, law, education, the arts, etc. I can't think of a more exciting field for this sort of work than Los Angeles, which is certainly one of the great cultural centers of our time.

Many might be wondering what this means for the important work of Word on Fire. The short answer is that it will certainly continue! Through the ministrations of Fr. Steve Grunow and his extremely gifted staff, we will keep bringing you my regular articles, sermons, videos, and media resources.

We have so many projects in the works, including our new film and study program on God and atheism, titled The Mystery of God, and our beautiful new documentary series Catholicism: The Pivotal Players. Those projects will continue as planned with more to come in the future.

I am grateful to all of you who follow and support Word on Fire, using our content to form yourselves and share the Catholic Faith. I thank God each and every day for you.

It is a blessing for me to work with you to introduce people to Jesus Christ and invite them to share all the gifts he wants his people to enjoy.

Please pray for me as I begin this new adventure under the Lord's providence.

Bishop-Elect Robert Barron
