25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

It is perhaps one of the most exciting and yet frightening times of a young couple's lives. From the moment they discover that they are expecting a child to the very moment that he or she enters the world, the parents-to-be are filled with joy, but also concern. Will their baby be healthy? Today's doctors can detect health issues long before the baby is born; if something is discovered, how does the young couple receive the news? Are they faced with difficult decisions, or are they bolstered by the message found in today's Gospel?

Given the circumstances of today's fast-paced life, it is difficult to imagine the pace of life in Jesus' day. On a journey by foot through Galilee, Jesus and his disciples had many hours to discuss the meaning of life and the role of Christ in their lives. He tried to explain his final days and hours, but even with seemingly all the time in the world, they did not grasp the immense message he was giving them. Perhaps seeking an easier way to say it, he held a small child, telling them that if they accept an innocent child, they are accepting him, and in accepting him, they are accepting God.

In praying the Lord's Prayer, we first and foremost proclaim "Our Father." This is done with the intent to remind us that in order to be fully revealed in our hearts, we must appear to God as innocents, children willing to accept his love unconditionally. We are asking for a purification of our hearts. As Jesus held that small child out to his disciples, he gave absolutely no conditions as to acceptance of a child. As innocents, children are the symbol of the purity of life and the purity of the love Jesus has for us all.

25. NEDJELJA KROZ GODINU

Kroz čitanja se provlači tema pravednosti. Tko je pravedan i pošten? Danas mnoge kao da ne zanima to pitanje. Ljude puno više zanima i svoju pozornost usredotočuju na to tko je uspješan ili tko je poznat. U svijetu koji je put zavisti i ambicija pravednost i poštenje nisu kvalitete na koje se previše obazire. Ljudi cijene one koji su iskreni, posebno one koji s njima surađuju, no puno više se aplaudira onima koji su spretni. Puno su više na cijeli oni koji su uspješni, napredni, bogati. Ljudi obožavaju one koji su lijepi, jaki, sigurni u sebe, koji su slavni, koji su zabavni, koji druge zabavljaju. Ljudi potiču ljude koji su ambiciozni, koji prvo misle na sebe. Malo tko je stekao popularnost zato što je pravedan i pošten.

A ipak, pravednost i poštenje jedan je od stupova na kojima se temelji kraljevstvo Božje. Oni koji žele ući u to kraljevstvo moraju biti ponizni i milosrdni, vjerni, iskreni, ljubitelji mira. Pravednici moraju biti spremni uzeti posljednje mjesto, moraju biti sluga. A koji su kriteriji da se nekog smatra pravednikom, jer današnji svijet kao da ima izvrnute kriterije. Kriterij i autentični primjer pravednosti jest Isus.

LISTOPAD – MJESEC POSVEĆEN MARIJI

Mjesec listopad je posvećen Blaženoj Djevici Mariji i molitvi krunice. U krunici od Marije učimo kako slušati Evanđelje, odnosno Isusa, te želimo da nas ona vodi na putu kroz otajstva Isusova života. Krunicu molimo u 10:30 sati prije podne tj. prije hrvatske sv. mise.

POHAĐANJE SV. MISE U MJESECU LISTOPADU

U mesecu listopadu svaka župa treba prebrojiti koliko ljudi dolazi na sv. misu. To je vrlo bitan pokazatelj vitalnosti pojedine župe. Ovo je prigoda da iskreno raz-mislamo o svome sudjelovanju u sakramentima, osobito
u sv. misi, te u životu naše hrvatske župe.

Od nedjelje 4. listopada sudjelovat ćemo u projektu "Bočice za bebe". Moći ćete uzeti dječje bočice, napuniti ih novcem te ih na kraju mjeseca vratiti u crkvu. Na taj način ćemo pomoći The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland. Pomožimo majke koje su u nevolji

POPE FRANCIS' US VOYAGE: WHAT AWAITS THE HOLY FATHER?

In his July 13 in-flight interview to Rome from Paraguay, Pope Francis indicated that he would “have to begin to study” for his first trip to the United States. Time will tell if his preparation has paid off.

Francis will become the third pope to visit the White House, when President Barack Obama welcomes him there at the beginning of his much anticipated five-and-a-half day apostolic voyage (September 22 to 27).

The intense, three-city visit will include the canonization Mass of Junípero Serra in Washington, addresses to Congress and the United Nations and two papal Masses at the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia.

It will be the Holy Father’s first ever visit to the United States and will follow a visit of three full days to Cuba.

Much of the focus of the trip will be on what the Pope says during the 14 addresses scheduled during the visit, with all eyes closely on his speech to Congress on the morning of Sept. 24.

The Pope will want to help the American people to “recognize the tender mercy of God and to encourage them to true conversion,” said Fr. Robert Gahl, an American priest and associate professor of moral philosophy at the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross in Rome. “He will speak to hearts through practical gestures.”

But Fr. Gahl said observers would “err to interpret the Pope’s words through the lens of partisan politics or false alternatives like right vs. left or capitalism vs. communism. Pope Francis will speak about political issues, but from a pastoral perspective and with the heart of a shepherd.”

He expects him to address hot-button issues such as immigration, abortion, climate change, marriage and the death penalty. “Probably, he will address at least five of these issues,” he said, “and he will do so with concern for the poor and the marginalized. He will not speak about these issues to score points for one candidate or another or for one party or another. He will assert that we all have an obligation to care for refugees and for the poor, whether or not they are U.S. citizens.”

Furthermore, Fr. Gahl expects the Pope to defend “the permanence of marriage” and the need for marital fidelity, with special concern for children suffering from divorce. He also thinks the Pope will call for “an executive amnesty” to pardon repentant criminals, as well as an end to the death penalty. On his last day, the Pope is to visit to detainees at Curran-Fromhold Correctional Facility in Philadelphia.

The Pope is to speak to congressional leaders in English, but almost all of his other addresses and homilies will be in Spanish, including his speech to the United Nations. Any extemporaneous comments, which Francis often likes to include, are also expected to be in Spanish.

Inside sources say that relations between the Holy See and the U.S. are as strong as they were under the Bush administration, and although there are major differences over life and family issues, when it comes to dealing with “hot spots” around the world, the two “work together well.”
