5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Once again we have a well-known and familiar Gospel story proposed for our Lenten reflection. The account of the woman caught in the act of adultery is one that invites us to be neither sinner or judge. She was found out - discovered - publicly shamed. It happens to most of us at some point in our lives, usually when we are young. We do something wrong, and get caught. And then we have to endure the humiliation of our wrongful act being known by others. It is expected that we will learn from our mistakes, but that doesn't always happen.

On the other hand, we're sometimes like the scribes and the Pharisees who bring the accusation. We discover something we can hold against another. Occasionally it is a secret knowledge that can fester in our hearts. At other times, it is a public shame that we do not hesitate to propagate for our own advantage. For whatever reason - vengeance, jealousy, mean-spiritedness - we want offenders to "get what's coming to them."

Maybe in the end, the story of the woman caught in adultery is to invite us to be neither sinner nor judge. Maybe the point of the story is to act like Jesus. Could we put ourselves in his role? He extends mercy, but he also proposes expectations ("do not sin anymore").

These past three Sundays before Holy Week have been about God giving us time. The fig tree that was allowed to grow another year, the prodigal son who was allowed to come back home, and the woman who was not condemned, were all given another chance. We all want that second chance when we sin. This Sunday's Gospel would suggest if we're going to follow Christ, we have to give another chance to those who sin against us as well.

5. KORIZMENA NEDJELJA

Farizeji Isusu dovode ženu zatečenu u preljubu, da joj sudi, da kaže svoj pravo-rijek. Zapravo mu postavljaju zamku, žele ga uhvatiti u nedosljednosti. Osudi li je - gdje je tu milosrđe o kojem stalno govori; s druge strane, opravda li je - krši Mojsijev zakon i tolerira grijeh. A Isus, pun milosrđa i ljubavi, ne osuđuje grešnicu. Ne pita ženu je li istina to što iznose protiv nje, ne pita je što ona ima reći u svoju obranu. Zašto? On sve zna, on proniče ljudske misli i gleda čovjekovo srce. Krije li se u njemu istina, pravda, ljubav ili možda u njemu caruje grijeh, dvoličnost, mržnja. Znao je da je žena pogriješila, ali je isto tako znao da su njezini tužitelji - i to muškarci - također grešni i da oni također zaslužuju osudu.

Isusov odgovor je i poziv i opomena: „Tko je od vas bez grijeha, neka prvi na nju baci kamen.“ Njegov odgovor postiže cilj: ženi je pružena mogućnost da se popravi, a pismoznance i farizeje poziva da promisle o sebi i postanu svjesni svoje vlastite grešnosti. Govori ženi: „Idi i od sada više nemoj grijehiti“. Ne prihvaća i ne opravdava njezin grijeh, poziva je na promjenu, obraćanje i prihvaća je kao izgublenu ovcu u svoje stado. Ne osuđujući i ne bacajući kamen, Isus pokazuje da je moguće opraštanje i pomirenje. I nas poziva da u našim međusobnim odnosima postupamo isto tako. Nažalost, mi često uzimamo kamenje svojih grijeha i druge njima kamenujemo. Svoje grijehe želimo opravdati i relativizirati napadajući i ističući grijehe drugih.

Isus svojim postupkom ženi vraća dostojanstvo, ženi koja je u starozavjetnom svijetu bila manje vrijedna od muškarca. Vraća joj dostojanstvo kakvo joj uistinu i pripada, kojim ju je kao i muškarca, stvarajući je i obdario. Je li naše društvo svjedok i promicatelj takvoga ženina dostojanstva?

ST. JOSEPH TABLE: AN AGE-OLD TRADITION

Saint Joseph is one of the most beloved saints especially among Italian-Americans. As the patron of workers and the protector of the family, he is honored with a feast on March 19.

According to legend, there was a famine in Sicily many centuries ago. The villagers prayed to St. Joseph, foster-father of Jesus, and asked his intercession before the throne of God. Their prayers were answered. With the ending of the dreadful famine, a special feast of thanksgiving was held in commemoration of the Saint. This celebration became tradition. Wealthy families prepared huge buffets. They then invited the less fortunate people of the village, especially the homeless and sick.

The celebration begins with a religious tableau. Selected villagers portray an elderly man, a lovely young woman, and a little child. The three are seated at the head table and remain there during the early part of the festivity. Others accompanying this "Holy Family" are 12 men or boys, representing the Apostles and other children, attired as angels. The village priest blesses the food, then the "Holy Family" is served first by the host and hostess.

All are free to come and go as they wish. The guests may eat what they choose and as much as pleases them. The festival lasts most of the day and well into the night. When all have been fed, they go on their way with thankful hearts and take the blessing of the host and hostess with them.

The effect of the table design is dignified, solemn, yet festive, grand and inspiring. Much symbolism is contained in its shape and decoration. The "steps" represent the ascent from earth to heaven. On the topmost step is a statue of St. Joseph or a picture of the Holy Family. White linen tablecloths cover the table. Vigil lights of green, brown and deep yellow, representing St. Joseph's attire, are profusely placed. Palms placed nearby and around the room, as well as lily plants and white carnations give the table softness and the scents together with incense used in the opening of the ceremony are suggestive of the fragrance of heaven and the sweetness of salvation.

The food dishes represent the harvest, the created beauties of the world. Breads are baked in shapes of a staff, a carpenter's implement, a hand, the cross and animals close to the Infant Child at birth. These shapes represent St. Joseph and the life of Christ. Minestras, very thick soups, are made of lentils, favas and other types of beans, together with escarole, broccoli or cauliflower. Other vegetables, celery, fennel stalks, boiled and stuffed artichokes are also served.

No cheese is eaten on St. Joseph's day. The spaghetti is not sprinkled with grated Incanestrato, but in its place a traditional mixture of tasted dry bread crumbs with fresh sardines and fennel sauce is used. A dish of "sweet macaroni" with honey sauce is also served. Then, the special dessert without which no St. Joseph's Day buffet could ever be called by that name, is served. It is St. Joseph's Sfinge: a large round cream puff filled with ricotta (Italian cottage cheese) and topped with red cherries and glazed orange slices. Many dessert cookies are embellished with almonds.
