WEEKLY MEDITATION — Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

What Jesus did at the wedding in Cana was not a once-in-a-lifetime thing. It pointed to what would happen all through his ministry. The changing of water into wine is a symbol for what he was about. Everywhere he went the old was made new. For the widow of Nain he changed tears in to joy. For Zacchaeus he changed selfishness into love. For the thief on Calvary he changed despair into hope. And on Easter morning he changed death into life.

His presence would change beyond recognition the lives of those with whom he came into contact. He continues to do this for those who believe in him and follow him. He transforms our lives into something wondrous. He offers us something that we deeply desire but can't achieve on our own. He offers us a share in the divine life—nothing less than the ecstasy of communion with God. Yet, all of this can remain only at a theoretical level unless we open our hearts to God's grace by striving for holiness in our lives, inviting Jesus to change water into wine in our lives.

There are many things in our spiritual lives that should be changed. Jesus' power is available to us. Let us reflect on our need of his power to change what needs to be changed.

ESCAPE THE WINTER BLUES ...

... AND ENJOY SOME VEGAS HEAT!

An evening with VITO ZATTO, Vegas-style entertainer, Saturday, Jan. 27, 6:30 p.m. in St. Jerome's School Hall, 2801 S. Princeton. Your $25.00 ticket includes buffet-style dinner/entertainment. B.Y.O.B. For tickets, call Leslie Kish at 773-548-5151. Support our school and have fun doing so!

Cardinal Stepinac Days at St. Jerome's

Soon it will be the weekend when we celebrate Blessed Cardinal Alojzije Stepinac, whose side altar is by the baptismal font. It will be Saturday, Feb. 10 and Sunday, Feb. 11. Please plan on participating in this important weekend in our parish.

All St. Jerome adult parishioners are invited to a Parish Social being hosted by the Parish Council. Please mark your calendars for Friday, Feb. 16. More information will be mailed personally to you shortly.

St. Jerome Parish is preparing to offer follow-up support to families who have lost loved ones, organized support that will occur in the weeks and months after a death. If you desire to volunteer to help in this new bereavement ministry or want to learn more, contact the rectory soon about training sessions.

Please pray for an end to abortion. Next Sunday we will remember in prayer all the babies who have died and all the adults who have been spiritually devastated due to the widespread occurrence of abortions in the U.S. since the Jan. 22, 1973 Supreme Court decision. This 34th anniversary is a time to come to grips with the tragedy.

B A P T I S M

This Sunday we welcome the baptismal entry into our parish community of:

Michael Angelo Russo,

son of Joseph & Michele (nee Mancari) Russo, and Godson of Anthony Scarpelli and Michelle Rizdy. We congratulate the family and friends, and may God, through the intercession of St. Michael the Archangel, bless little Michael Angelo.

THIS WEEK'S SECOND COLLECTION:

The Archdiocese of Chicago's Seminarians

Although the Croatian Franciscans have supplied all the priests for St. Jerome's since its 1912 founding, our parish benefits in many ways from a vibrant flourishing priesthood throughout Chicago. Through this collection, you will support training for the future priests of Chicagoland.

Our Beloved Deceased

In this past week, Joe Paradiso, our parishioner and a member of the Holy Name Society (age 81), Frank A. Sipich, a graduate of the St. Jerome Class of 1932 (age 89), and Josephine Verdi (age 70) were buried from our church. Our prayers and sympathy go out to their loved ones, and may Joe, Frank and Josephine rest in the peace of Christ.

CAUTION: Beginning this week, our local police will ticket double-parkers if either of St. Jerome's 2 parking lots aren't full.
