WEEKLY MEDITATION

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Since the dawn of time people have been other all of us are treasure-hunters looking for happy. There is nothing wrong with this. for those who were looking, even if they were looking in the wrong places and for the wrong things. He understood them and was able to point them in the right direction. Our chief task in life is not to be successful or even to be fulfilled. It is to live properly. No one can be happy who misses the main purpose of life. The only question that really matters is how best to live in this world. Those who find the answer to this question have found the treasure.

looking for treasure. In one way or another... something that will make us completely Christ loved searchers. He had sympathy for those who were looking, even if they were looking in the wrong places and for the wrong things. He understood them and was able to point them in the right direction. Our chief task in life is not to be successful or even to be fulfilled. It is to live properly. No one can be happy who misses the main purpose of life. The only question that really matters is how best to live in this world. Those who find the answer to this question have found the treasure.

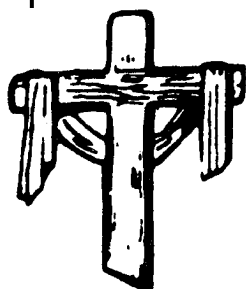

Life is unintelligible and unbearable without God. A close relationship with God is a real treasure. It gives us a sense of who we are and where we're going. Only God can give us what we are looking for. If we find God, we find all. If we have faith, we have all. Yet, that doesn't mean that all the work is done for us. Faith commits us to a life of discovering, searching, and yearning. It's not only in holy places or on religious occasions that we find God and feel close to Him. The treasure we look for is hidden within each of us. It is God's love for us and our divine dignity as His children. Seek it!

MISSION APPEAL

The Little Sisters of the Poor will take up a collection at all the masses this weekend, July 23-24, for the support of their work among the elderly poor. The Sisters conduct St. Mary's Home for the Elderly in Chicago. In order to maintain the Home, the Sisters go out daily to solicit money, food, and services for their residents. Any help you can offer them will be deeply appreciated. Thank you!

OUR DECEASED

Joseph Bozich, age 67, and youngest of 12 Bozich children, died Sunday, July 17th. His funeral mass was celebrated in our church on Thursday, July 21. We extend our sympathy to his wife Joan and daughters Cheryl and Lori, brother Ton i, sister Eleonor, many nephews, nieces, relatives and friends. May he rest in peace.

Sister Imelda Velcich, a native of our parish, passed away on Sunday, July 17, at the age of 89. She served at St. Jerome School for 14 years. From 1961-1964 she was principal, organist, and kindergarten teacher. She again served as principal and organist from 1976 to 1983. In 1990 she returned and taught fourth grade until 1994 when she retired to the Mother House. Sister was a member of the Sister Adorers of the Precious Blood. May God grant her eternal peace.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

"Where your pleasure is, there is your treasure.
Where your treasure is, there is your heart.
Where your heart is, there is your happiness."

WISDOM'S CORNER

Where is your treasure?

There was once a poor tailor who lived in Krakow. He was a very pious man. One night he had a dream in which a voice said to him, "If you go to Prague and dig beneath a certain tree behind the emperor's castle, you will find a great treasure. Since the man placed great trust in dreams, he set out the very next day for Prague. When he arrived he found that the castle was guarded. Unable to get across the bridge, he lived under it for a while, and eventually became friends with the captain of the guard. One day he shared his story with him saying, " I had a dream that if I got into the castle grounds and went to a certain tree and dug there, I would find a treasure." The captain said to him, "You are a foolish man. You shouldn't believe that sort of thing. Once I had a dream that over in Krakow there lived a poor but wise tailor. I dreamt that if I went to his house and dug behind his stove I would find a treasure that somebody had buried there a long time ago. Of course I dismissed it as foolishness." The tailor thanked him, went back home, dug behind his own hearth, and found the treasure.

We will never be happy unless we find the treasure that God has hidden in our own field. That is, the treasure of our own worth as His children.

A GOOD MAN

"A good man is a gift to all who know him. He's dependable like the sunrise because his goodness springs from inner strength, not outward circumstances. A good man spreads happiness everywhere he goes and leaves everyone he meets feeling a little better than he did before. He's a pleasure to be around, an inspiration in good times and bad, and a gift for all seasons...he's a GOOD MAN."

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED ENTERTAINMENT

The amazing documentary film "March of the Penguins" tells the unfathomable story of the emperor penguins and their yearly journey across hundreds of miles of the arctic continent under harshest conditions in order to start a family. They risk starvation and attack under nearly impossible conditions to find a mate and reproduce, protecting their young from the brutal forces of nature in hope of surviving. This film, narrated by Morgan Freeman, should not be missed. It is truly a an amazing story and a triumph of photography that captures the pristine and raw beauty of the Arctic while revealing the astounding life cycle of these incredible creatures. You will be enthralled! Check www.marchofthepenguins.com

EUCCHARISTIC PROCESSION...
