WEEKLY MEDITATION — 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

‘Come to me, all you who labor and are overburdened, and I will give you rest.’ These are among the loveliest words in the Gospel. Life can be very burdensome. There are all kinds of burdens—worry, responsibility, disappointments, hurts, bitterness, guilt, illness, unemployment, a difficult relationship, addiction, etc. How much a little sensitivity or a word of appreciation would help to make a heavy burden lighter! It makes a world of difference when people are treated with kindness and respect. Jesus is aware of our burdens. His love can make a heavy burden seem light. It is our faith that makes Him known to us, but religion should not make life more burdensome. If Jesus placed any burden on us at all, it was that of loving one another. Yet, if we have love, that is no burden at all. He doesn’t take our burdens from us, but gives us the strength to carry them. While faith makes all things, possible, love makes all things easier.

Jesus tells you to come to Him even if you are not worthy. Come to Him even if you are afraid. Come to Him even if you are too proud. Come to him even if you have no appointment. Come to Him even if you are busy. Come to Him no matter what. He will give you rest. His love for you will lighten your burden. Your love for Him will let Him help you carry it.

Reflection

A Matter of Life

ON THIS DAY..... Be gentle. Laugh a little more. Deserve confidence. Take up arms against malice. Decry complacency. Express your gratitude. Worship your God. Gladden the heart of a child. Patiently assist an elderly person. Take pleasure in the beauty and wonder of the earth. Speak your love. Speak it again

??? HAVE YOU FORGOTTEN

Please Remember to dress appropriately for church. This is our sacred place of worship. The way we dress and the way we behave indicate our respect for the house of God and what takes place in it. The dignity and holiness of the mass, in particular, should be acknowledged by modesty in attire and respectfulness in words and actions. Thank you for observing these guidelines and honoring our sacred space.

WISDOM’S CORNER

Brotherly love.....

Two brothers worked a family farm, sharing the produce and profit. One was married; the other wasn’t. The climate was harsh with the result that grain was sometimes scarce. One day the single brother said to himself, “It’s not fair that we should share the produce equally. I’m alone, but my brother has a family to support.” So, every now and then he would go out at night, take a sack of grain from his own barn, quietly cross the field between their houses, and place it in his brother’s bin. Meanwhile, his brother had a similar idea and said to himself, “It’s not right that we should share the produce equally. I have a family to support me, but my brother is all alone.” So, every now and then he would go at night, take a sack of grain from his barn, and quietly place it in his brother’s bin. This went on for a number of years and each brother was puzzled as to why his supply of grain never dwindled. Then one night they bumped into each other in the dark. When they realized what had been happening, they dropped their sacks and embraced each other.

Benedict the XVI and the Eucharist

“God is near. God knows us. God is waiting for us in Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Let us not leave Him waiting in vain! Let us not, through distraction and lethargy, pass by the greatest and most important thing life offers us...Let us take time, in the course of the week, in passing, to go in and spend a moment with the Lord who is so near...”

Football Mania Comes to St. Jerome

Football Mania raffle tickets are on sale now! Tickets are $20 each and are valid for the entire 17 week NFL football season. That breaks down the cost of a ticket to only $1.17 per week! Your $20 ticket gives you six chances to win up to $500 in prize money weekly for 17 weeks! Two grand prizes will be awarded at the end of the season to the ticket holders with the highest 17 week point total and the lowest 17 week point total.

Every Football Mania ticket contains three randomly chosen NFL teams per week. You get three different teams each week. No two tickets have the same three teams in any given week. The combined total points your three NFL teams score in the actual games that week determine the value of your ticket. If the combined scores of your teams is the highest (or lowest), then you win!
