WEEKLY MEDITATION — Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel deals with a very important subject—the exercise of authority. People seek authority for different reasons. Some like the power that goes with it; it makes them feel important. Others like the prestige it brings. Others like the higher salary. All these reasons are opportunities to promote oneself.

When James and John asked Jesus if they could have the top places in his kingdom, they were likely thinking only of themselves. They did not mind how much envy and resentment they aroused in their companions.

They evidently thought that his kingdom was modeled on worldly standards, but Jesus told them that it wasn't like that at all. In his kingdom, the greatest would be those who were willing to serve others rather than serve themselves. Jesus saw authority as an op- portunity to serve. He set the example himself. He would lead, but he does not control. He appeals, and invites, but leaves the response to us. Jesus uses his authority not to control but rather to invite our response to his love.

Those entrusted with power over their fellow human beings ought to be caring, just, merciful, wise, tolerant, lenient, and ready to serve—even to the point of sacrifice and suffering.

From Pope Benedict's lips to our ears:

The Vatican recently issued a question-and-answer format book that teaches the truth about Jesus & the Catholic Church.

Question: What role does Sacred Scripture play in the life of the Church?

Answer: Sacred Scripture give support and vigor to the life of the Church. For the children of the Church, it is a confirmation of the faith, food for the soul and the fount of the spiritual life. Sacred Scripture is the soul of theology and of pastoral preaching. The Psalmist says that it is "a lamp to my feet and a light to my path" (Ps. 119:105). The Church, therefore, exhorts all to read Sacred Scripture frequently because "ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ" (St. Jerome).

Are You Willing ...

- to stoop down and consider the needs and desires of little children;
- to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old;
- to stop asking how much your friends love you, and to ask yourself whether you love them enough;
- to bear in mind the things that other people have to bear on their hearts;
- to trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and to carry it in front so that your shadow will fall behind you;
- to make a grave for your ugly thoughts and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open?

Are you willing?

WISDOM'S CORNER

In Giving, We Receive

A certain man was traveling on foot and came to a mountain pass. It was late in the autumn and snow began to fall as the man was climbing the steep slope. The trail was long and eventually the man was benumbed and freezing.

After great difficulty he reached the top and there found a stranger lying on the ground, unconscious and near death from the bitter cold. Forgetting his own discomfort, the man hurried to the suffering stranger and began to massage his body and limbs vigorously, with all his strength. Before long, the stranger showed signs of life, and after much brisk exercising, was restored to full consciousness.

The amazing thing the man discovered was that by working hard to save the stranger's life, he himself had become warm and strong. He eagerly lifted up the stranger and together they descended the mountain to safety.

THE THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

"The only ones among you who will be really happy are those who will have sought & found how to serve."

- Dr. Albert Schweitzer

THIS WEEK'S SECOND COLLECTION is for the SOCIETY OF THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH. Through your donation, you will help the Church's missionaries in their work around the world.

Please pray for John Plisic, 90, and Peter Trumblay Sr., 65, who were buried from our parish recently. Our school's principal, Peter Trumblay, lost his father. Also, Father Joe's sister, Ana Vidović, 55, passed away a week ago, and Fr. Joe went to Europe for her funeral Mass and burial. We extend our sympathy as a parish family to their families and friends. May their souls, and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Rest in the Lord

St. Jerome's Marian Society will hold a luncheon at noon (after the Croatian Mass) on Sunday, Nov. 5. Adult tickets are $20.00 and will be available from Marian Society members, from the Rectory and at the door. Come enjoy fellowship and honor Our Blessed Mother.

Help our young parishioners help people in need: Our Youth Service Corps has begun coordinating our annual Thanksgiving food drive. Please drop off your dried food boxes and cans in the boxes in the church vestibule up to Thanksgiving. ALSO JOIN THE YOUTH CORPS IN MAKING DECORATIONS for our Christmas Giving Tree—in the Small Hall, Friday, Nov. 3 at 6 p.m. Earn service hours as you help us!

EXPERIENCE A RETREAT: Grow in holiness by participating in a special retreat with Tony Hickey, a retreat master from England. Nov. 4, 5 and 6 at Most Holy Redeemer Church 96th & Lawndale. More info 708 422 0206.

Voting with a Clear Conscience:

10 Easy Steps offered by www.priestsforlife.org

Step #1: Commit to vote this Nov. 7; and pray for wisdom and guidance. Step #2: Know where the candidates stand. Step #3: Reject the Disqualified. Step #4: Distinguish "disagreements over policy" from "breaking fundamental principles." Step #5: Weigh other issues properly because not all issues have equal weight.

Step #6: Keep loyalty focused on Jesus. When we vote, we say something about where our loyalties are. There is nothing wrong with being loyal to a candidate or party. But there is something very wrong if loyalty to either is stronger than loyalty to Jesus Christ. Ask, "Is there a position that my party can take that would prevent me from voting the party line?" Or looking from another angle: "Is my loyalty to the Christian faith stronger than my loyalty to any political party?"

Step #7: Remember, the party in power matters. Voting with a clear conscience also means that you consider how the outcome of the election in which you vote affects the balance of power. In other words, elections do not only put individual candidates into power; they put political parties into power. And it is not only the candidates who have positions. So do the parties.

Test your Bible I.Q.:

Our parish's patron saint, St. Jerome of Dalmatia, was the Roman Catholic Church's greatest translator of the Bible. He had a famous saying: Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance ...

- A) ... of the Bible.
- B) ... of what truly matters in life.
- C) ... of God.
- D) ... of Christ.

See the Bulletin next week for the answer!

Last week's answer was

D) the four Gospels are the core of the Scriptures because they tell us about Jesus Christ, who is the ultimate truth of divine Revelation.
